

Kestrels to take to the River Tay

The Royal Tay Yacht Club is hosting the Kestrel class National Championships in Dundee this week.

The championship began yesterday and will continue until Wednesday with two races taking place each day from 11am, apart from tomorrow when one long-distance race will be held.

Kestrel sailing is considered an affordable way of getting on the water.

Kestrel events take place up and down the country all year.